Birthday-A Time to Count Blessings

A 92-year-old, petite, well-poised and proud man, who is fully dressed each morning by eight o'clock, with his hair fashionably coifed and shaved perfectly, even though he is legally blind, moved to a nursing home today. His wife of 70 years recently passed away, making the move necessary. After many hours of waiting patiently in the lobby of the nursing home, he smiled sweetly when told his room was ready. As he maneuvered his walker to the elevator, the nurse provided a visual description of his tiny room, including the eyelet sheets that had been hung on his window. "I love it," he stated with the enthusiasm of an eight-year-old having just been presented with a new puppy. "Mr. Jones, you haven't seen the room; just wait." "That doesn't have anything to do with it," he replied.

"Happiness is something you decide on ahead of time. Whether I like my room or not doesn't depend on how the furniture is arranged... it's how I arrange my mind. I already decided to love it. It's a decision I make every morning when I wake up. I have a choice; I can spend the day in bed recounting the difficulty I have with the parts of my body that no longer work, or get out of bed and be thankful for the ones that do. Each day is a gift, and as long as my eyes open, I'll focus on the new day and all the happy memories I've stored away." And he went on to add, "Old age is like a bank account. You withdraw from what you've put in. So, my advice to you would be to deposit a lot of happiness in the bank account of memories! Thank you for your part in filling my memory bank."

Today as I celebrate my Birthday, I recall happy memories deposited in my Bank Account of Memory, which allows me 'cashless' withdrawals. I thank God for my precious life, the many blessings, and the numerous wonderful people who have entered my life and enriched me. The 64 years that I complete today include 37 as a priest and 22 as a Bishop! These years have been grace-filled and love-filled, experience-filled and people-filled! And today I say Thank you God. Thank you everyone!

As I begin a new year in my life I think of the support and love of so many that has made a difference in my life. As someone said, Birthdays are filled with yesterday's memories, today's joys, and tomorrow's dreams. Today is a day to thank God. +Lumen, CSC

Birthday Thoughts and Beyond

Ever since the start of the Diocese till date, the first day of the month of February has been a special day for us all it's the Birthday of our dear Bishop. 1st of February has come round again and the whole Diocese wishes its Pastor Happy Birthday.

We join Bishop Lumen in thanking God for his precious life, a life that he continues to spend for God's people entrusted to his care.

As the Head of the Diocese since its start, he has not only seen but also been part of huge changes that have happened in Tripura. They continue to happen almost at a breakneck speed even today. Could it be that engrossed in our own world we do not fully grasp the import of things happening around us?

The other day the first train rolled out of Agartala to Udaipur. Two decades ago, that would have sounded like a line from Alice in Wonderland. Two decades ago, many other things that today we take for granted in this city - four-lane roads and flyovers, railways, multiplexes, shopping malls and branded goods, would have also sounded like figment of imagination. There was a time, not too distant in the past, when this city did not have a satisfactory eating-place or even a decent public toilet.

The changes are not about infrastructure and amenities solely. Less perceptibly perhaps, but lifestyles of people have changed too. Perceptions, attitudes and behaviors have changed too.

As Church and as a Diocese we run the risk of losing the story if we look askance at these changes, some of them deceptively casual, and dismiss them as matters secular.

This apparently unsettling scenario, perhaps offers us opportunities. For us, as Church and a Faith-community, may be there are implications here we cannot afford to miss.

It's time perhaps for a new look at the same old things. Not vainly desiring to 'keep up with the Joneses' but in an attempt to become more relevant and immediate.

Once again we thank God for dear Bishop Lumen and wish him a very happy birthday and God's choicest blessings. J. Pulinthanath, SDB

Obituary - Towering Moral Theologian Capuchin Podimattam dies

Capuchin Father Felix Podimattam, who authored the most number of books on Moral Theology in the world, died on December 17 at Kottayam, Kerala. The 82-year-old priest had been ailing for some months. Fr Podimattam created history in 2013 when Limca Book of Records accepted him as the person who wrote 135 books on Catholic Moral Theology, a world record. A year later, Bishop Raphael Thattil, the then Apostolic Visitor to the Syro-Malabar Church, described Father Podimattam as a towering scholar and the last word in Moral Theology in India. His works are unparalleled, and each of his Books is unique and scientific, the Prelate told a Seminar on April 8, 2014, to honor the theologian in Trichur, Kerala's cultural capital. His masterpiece was "The Ten Commandments in the Law of Christ," a 20-volume work on the Decalogue. The volume is "a true encyclopedia in the field of Christian ethics and morality," said Paikada, who wrote an introductory note to the author. Matters India via CNUA
